Re: United States v. Jacqueline Tsai
Criminal Docket No. 17-198 (KMW)

Dear Judge Wood:

On behalf of Jacqueline Tsai in the above-referenced case, I write to advise the Court that she attempted suicide on November 15, 2019, the day she was scheduled to surrender to begin serving her sentence, and is currently at Pacifica Hospital of the Valley, Sun Valley, California 91352. Ms. Tsai's husband has been providing me updates, though it appears that Ms. Tsai was or has been refusing to speak to him. I spoke to Ms. Tsai by telephone briefly last night, but her speech was slurred, and I could not completely understand her.

My understanding is that Ms. Tsai's husband called the Probation Department on Friday or Saturday to report the situation. To the extent that the government applies for a warrant based on Ms. Tsai's failure to surrender on Friday as scheduled, I respectfully request that the Court hold that request in abeyance pending a further update.

Granted
KMW

Respectfully,

/s/
Andrew J. Frisch
